The 2012 Nobel Peace Prize Forum runs from March 1-3. It is open to the public, explores issues related to peacemaking and causes of conflict and war, and includes tracks related to business, arts and music, education, and global studies. To learn more about the program, visit <http://nobelpeaceprizeforum.org/>.

The forum is organized by Augsburg College (<http://www.augsburg.edu/>) in partnership with the Humphrey School of Public Affairs, and with ongoing sponsorship from the original college partners. The Nobel Peace Prize Forum is the only affiliation of the Nobel Institute outside Norway. It was founded during 1989 through a unique partnership between the Norwegian Nobel Institute and five private colleges – Augsburg, Augustana, Concordia (Moorhead), Luther and St. Olaf.

Major support is provided by The El-Hibri Charitable Foundation, Land O’ Lakes, and Thrivent Financial for Lutherans.
